By GEOFFREY GOULD

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic leaders have started a drive to get through Congress the first of the social welfare bills President-elect John F. Kennedy has pledged to back.

No. 1 is the depressed areas bill. It was learned today that Senate Democratic leaders will give it the "S. 1" ticket as the first Senate bill introduced this year.

The measure again will be offered by Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., and will be similar to another bill of his in the last Congress, passed by the Senate, watered down by the House, and vetoed by President Eisenhower.

Among other measures on the Kennedy list sure to follow are medical care for the aged tied to Social Security, raising the minimum wage and federal aid to schools.

But before they buckle down to business both House and Senate were embroiled today in their perennial fights over matters pertaining to civil rights legislation.

In the Senate, the fight centered on a proposed rules change to make it easier to halt a filibuster—the ancient weapon of the Southerners to talk a civil rights bill to death.

Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., has proposed that three-fifths of the Senate—60 senators—could vote to cut off debate. At present a two-thirds majority of all present and voting is needed.

Another proposal is to cut the requirement to a simple majority of 51 senators. That is backed by Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., and Thomas H. Kuchel, R-Calif.

Southern senators spoke sharply against any rules change and pre-

Legend of the Statue

Here is Mr. Atkins' story of the statue:

The concept of Justice as a female figure is traceable to the earliest civilizations. The ancient Egyptians depicted Justice with her left hand outstretched and headless. A symbolism whose significance has been lost in the dust of centuries. The Romans, with their passion for the law, characteristically portrayed her seated upon a square stone, holding the familiar scales and sword—they also incorporated her into their mythology.

According to Orvid her name was Astraea, the daughter of Jupiter and the Titaness Themis, who descended from Heaven during the Golden Age of man and gave to mankind the principles of Justice and Equity. As civilization advanced into the age of brass and iron, and vice and corruption increased, she re-ascended into Heaven and assumed her place in the zodiac as the constellation Virgo.

Over the centuries artists have made literally hundreds of representations of Justice, employing virtually every medium from clothing and engravings to bas-reliefs and free standing statues. Each is different, as the individual artist lent his own interpretation to the traditional iconographic concept. In some versions, she has been portrayed as blind, denoting impartiality; in others she has open piercing eyes; and in at least one version, that of Albrecht Dürer, the eyes are flashing flames. The blindfold about the eyes is virtually a modern embellishment, dating only from about the year 1530; hence the contemporary concept of Justice as "... a blindfolded female figure of classic beauty and majestic mien, bearing aloft the scales in her left hand, holding in her right hand a long, double-edged sword."

Figures of Justice are to be found in the Palace of Justice in Paris, in Rome, on the New York City Hall, and in scores of museums, art galleries and public buildings throughout the world. In the field of Sculpture the Romanelli name has been pre-eminent for seven generations. The renowned sculptor, Carl Romanelli, is best known for his recent works of the St. Catherine and St. Vincent statues for the St. Vincent Church in Los Angeles, the Al Jolson Monument, the Jack Dempsey Figurine, and the Guy Crippin Plaque.

May the high principles of the legal profession symbolized by this statue, ever inspire and guide us in our work.

THE LEGEND ON THE FOUR SIDES OF THE BASE OF THE statue reads as follows:

"STATUE OF JUSTICE BY THE RENOWNED SCULPTOR Carl Romanelli."

"EMBLEMATIC OF THE HIGH PRINCIPLES OF THE legal profession."

"MAY IT EVER INSPIRE AND GUIDE US IN ALL OUR work as lawyers."

"PRESENTED TO THE HEMPSTEAD COUNTY BAR Association by William S. Atkins January 3, 1961."

U.S. Declares Castro Deliberately Forced Break in Relations

Anti-Cuban Boos Force UN Recess

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United States and Cuba exchanged sharp accusations today in a U.N. Security Council session which had to be recessed briefly after anti-Cuban demonstrations broke out in the public gallery.

The United States accused Prime Minister Fidel Castro of deliberately forcing Tuesday night's break in U.S.-Cuban relations by a strategy of harassment.

Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa told the 11-nation council he had proof of the alleged invasion plans and said in a letter that "the government and people of Cuba are preparing to repel the invaders."

Roa said Cuba had ordered a reduction in the personnel of the U.S. Embassy because "most of the staff is involved in criminal espionage, subversion and terrorist activities." It was this order that led to the U.S. decision to break relations.

U.S. Ambassador James J. Wadsworth accused the Castro regime of carrying on Soviet-supported subversion throughout the Western Hemisphere.

The demonstration broke out during Roa's speech.

Holiday Traffic Claims 338 Lives

CHICAGO (AP) — The New Year's weekend traffic accidents claimed 338 lives, but the toll was the lowest for a three-day New Year's holiday since 1953, when 317 traffic deaths were counted. Pikes claimed 66 lives from 6 p.m. last Friday to midnight Monday (local time), and miscellaneous accidents accounted for 70 more deaths, for an overall accidental death toll of 402.

Belgium May Be Over a Strike Crisis

By FRED CHEVAL

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Government spokesmen claimed today that strike-torn Belgium is slowly returning to normal, but strikers called for new demonstrations against the government's austerity program.

Leaders of the Socialist-led General Workers Federation summoned strikers to a rally after a morning attempt to discuss the program of higher taxes and reduced welfare service that the government insists is necessary for survival.

The department store strike attempt was marked by scattered violence, and there were clashes elsewhere in Belgium.

P600 chased several hundred pickets away from stores. The pickets, about 40 per cent of them women, walked meekly away.

Trouble broke out in Ghent. Police clashed with strikers who threw rocks at windows of two textile factories. Many teachers in Ghent struck and few children reported to school.

Police Administration Minister Pierre Harmel declared that despite the sporadic disorders, vital services were being restored.

Electric power stations are working again in seven of Belgium's nine provinces, he said, and trains are running to Italy and Switzerland and air traffic is normal.

The situation is still bad in Liege and Hainaut, both industrial centers hard hit by the strikes.

The Socialist newspaper "Le Peuple" claimed that 200,000 persons demonstrated throughout Belgium Tuesday against Prime Minister Gaston Eyskens' austerity program of higher taxes and lower social security benefits. The government estimated the total at 75,000, a figure given credence by the 9,000 turnout in Brussels.

With the government coalition parties—the Social Christians and Conservative liberals — backing him, the prime minister won four votes on various motions Tuesday in Parliament. Eyskens' backers considered them votes of confidence.

Antwerp, Belgium's biggest port, remained partially paralyzed but a department store strike fizzled there also.

But in Soignies, near the southern industrial city of Charleroi, police broke up rowdy demonstrations with bayonets. In Liege and at Namur most stores remained shut and transport was at a near standstill.

Three Accidents Investigated

Three accidents were investigated by Hope City Police during the past 24 hours, none resulting in serious damage.

On North Hazel Street yesterday, autos driven by Reggie Turner and Stanley Latin collided with tender damage resulting. On East Third cars driven by Mrs. H. Walton and Richard Rowe collided with minor damage and this morning at Hwy. 9 and Second, cars driven by Clyde Self and Shelia Foster ran together with light damage to both vehicles.

Negro Youth Sent to Boys School

A 13 year old Negro youth, Floyd Nunley, who shot his father to death Christmas Day, was sent to the Arkansas Industrial School for Boys yesterday by Judge Lyle Brown.

His father, Chester Nunley, died instantly when shot with a .22 cal. rifle following a family argument of long standing.

U. S. Funds for Children's Home

DALLAS, (AP) — The regional office of the Health, Education and Welfare Department has formally approved expenditures of $390,351.44 of federal money for the Arkansas Children's Colony in Conway, Ark.

This amount was designated as the HEW share of the $766,222 project.

Dimes Drive Places Coin Collectors

The 1961 New March of Dimes put in a bid to round up all the loose change in Hempstead County during the month of January as it began distribution today of coin collectors throughout the area.

Volunteers will place 100 containers in stores, supermarkets, restaurants, offices and other appropriate locations to collect funds in the national foundation's fight to prevent crippling diseases. Mrs. Lura Mae Impson, campaign director, announced.

"One vote can often decide an election," she said. "And, who knows? Perhaps one full coin collector might contain just the few extra dollars needed for a medical researcher to discover part of the answer as to why one out of 16 children born in this country is born with a significant birth defect."

UN Told About Harassment U. S. Suffered

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United States today accused Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro of deliberately forcing the break of U.S.-Cuban relations by a strategy of harassment.

U.S. Ambassador James J. Wadsworth told the U.N. Security Council the United States has worked hard to prevent "the leaders of Cuba from choking off our friendly relations but that is what they seemed determined to do."

Wadsworth spoke shortly after the council met to consider Cuban charges that the United States is planning an invasion of Cuba. He began by referring to Tuesday night's decision by the White House to break diplomatic relations with the Castro regime.

Before the meeting Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa told a reporter that the U.S. decision has proved the Cuban charges. Commenting on the break of relations he said: "It proves my charges."

Wadsworth called the charges "false and hysterical."

He said they were a fresh reminder of "the strategy of harassment by which they brought us—I really think on purpose—to last night's decision."

"Over nearly two years," Wadsworth said, "they have piled insult upon injury to a point where our diplomacy could not function any more."

By LEWIS GULICK
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has broken U.S. diplomatic relations with Fidel Castro's Cuban regime, declaring "the limit has now been reached ... to what the United States in self respect can endure."

The President said "our sympathy goes out to the people of Cuba now suffering under the yoke of a dictator."

The White House announcement of the break-off Tuesday night marked rock bottom in a downward plunge of U.S.-Cuban relations that started soon after Castro's seizure of power.

2 Escapees Captured, 1 at Large

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Police have captured two of the three men who saved their way out of the Washington County Jail Sunday, but they still are searching for 26-year-old Donald L. Starr of Fayetteville.

Edgar Freeman Reece, 27, of Raleigh, N. C. was arrested Tuesday without a struggle at the home of a mountain family near Kingston, Ark., 60 miles east of here.

State Trooper Tommy Goodwin who made the arrest, said the family who gave Reece lodging was unaware that he was an escaped convict. Goodwin said Reece was armed with a butcher knife.

Officers said Reece was an escapee from a North Carolina prison and that extradition proceedings were underway when he escaped.

The third member of the escaped trio, Bobby D. Boatright, 26, of Fayetteville, was arrested Monday after police flushed him from a hiding place in an attic in Fayetteville.

All three men were being held on forged charges.

Deputy Sheriff H. D. Arnold said police did not know how the men got the saw they used to cut through cell bars. He said Reece was a native of Jacksonville, Fla.

The person who has the command of the English language is the one who keeps his mouth shut.

Americans Urged to Leave Cuba

By RICHARD VALERIANI

HAVANA (AP)—The U.S. Embassy today made arrangements for the speedy exodus of Americans from Cuba and urged all to depart in the wake of President Eisenhower's decision to break diplomatic relations with the Fidel Castro government.

The first wave of departing diplomats and other Americans was expected this afternoon.

An unusually courteous note from the Cuban government, however, suggested there was no need for haste. It pledged the "most absolute guarantees" of safety for all American citizens—residents, tourists and diplomats alike.

The note, delivered after the Cabinet in an emergency meeting had considered the White House announcement of the break, also offered to extend the 48-hour period given all but 11 members of the embassy staff to get out of Cuba. The 48-hour period expires this afternoon.

It further emphasized the amenities by offering "in concordance with the norms of international right, every kind of facility" for the removal of the embassy's office equipment and other property.

The Castro government said it in turn would withdraw its diplomatic personnel from the United States as speedily as possible and turn its representation in the United States over to Communist Czechoslovakia's diplomats.

The American colony in Cuba is estimated at between 500 and 2,000. The embassy urged all to leave unless they have "compelling reasons" to remain.

There was no immediate rush of agitated Americans to the embassy, however, and many were expected to remain in Cuba. Several small American businesses have escaped the nationalization that has wiped out most of the billion-dollar American investment in Cuba. A number of Americans still here are married to Cubans and have lived here for years.

It seemed inevitable that the break would heighten Castro pressure for a termination of the U.S. lease on the Guantanamo naval base on the southeast coast.

Hard Freeze Prevails in Sections

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Freezing weather prevailed in the major part of the country today but a warming trend was indicated over most of the chilled areas.

Below zero temperatures were reported in only a few spots outside the mountain areas as the warmer air spread into the Rocky Mountain region and headed eastward.

The mercury dropped to only 11 above in International Falls, Minn., after a couple of mornings of 30 below readings. At Fraser, in the Colorado Rockies, the low was -19 but in Madison, Wis., the mercury climbed from -4 to 5 above during the early morning. Some areas in Montana reported above freezing marks.

The below freezing belt covered all sections except the extreme southern part of the country, along the Pacific and along the Atlantic Coast as far north as Virginia.

Light snow and snow flurries fell during the night and morning in the Great Lakes region, eastern parts of the Ohio Valley and the northern Appalachians. Snow squalls hit western and central New York, with heavy falls in some areas. Six inches was reported in Hamburg, a village south of Buffalo, which reported three inches. A heavy blanket covered a 30-mile stretch from Depew, near Buffalo, to Leroy, cutting the speed on the New York Thruway from the normal 60 to 35 m.p.h.

Seek Negro Who Slashed Girl to Death

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Police today pressed a manhunt for a Negro who slashed to death a pretty young modeling student in her bedroom.

Donna Trussell, a cousin of 1960 Miss America Lynda Lee Mead, was slain just a few hours before she was to return to New York, where she was trying to launch an acting career. It was her 18th birthday.

Another cousin stumbled on the slaying Tuesday and fled in terror. Police later found Miss Trussell's nude body in her bedroom.

Her father said it "looked like a slaughterhouse."

The coroner's office said the girl died from multiple stab wounds of the chest, throat and abdomen.

Capt. Myron Weisham, homicide division chief, said the killer probably was scratched on the face or neck and cut on the right thumb.

Police questioned three Negroes picked up near the scene.

Lynn Bulliard, 25, cousin of Miss Trussell, said she dropped by to wish her a happy birthday and saw her struggling with a Negro. She said she was no more than 10 feet from the death struggle.

A TV set was knocked down and a heater pulled from the wall.

"Part of her clothes were off and she was lying on the floor," Miss Bulliard said. "I didn't know what to do. I don't think he even saw me there was so much noise. I ran down the stairs and out to Allen."

Allen Rothbart of New York had accompanied Miss Bulliard and waited outside. He said he saw the assailant flee on a bicycle, carrying a bundle of clothing under his arm.

Many School Buses Have No Heaters

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Many Arkansas school children are riding to school cold these mornings.

The state Education Department said Tuesday at least 372 school buses do not have adequate heaters. If each hauled an average of 25 students, that would total 9,300 shivering youngsters.

The department's figures are based on reports from 411 of the 419 school districts. State Rep. Raymond Mays of Cleveland County asked for the report for the Legislature.

Education Commissioner Arch Ford said it would take $84,000 to install heaters in the buses.

There is one ray of hope for the students, though. Ford said that most of the buses are old and will be replaced by new buses—with heaters—in a year or two. For that reason the Council's Education Committee decided to let the matter "ride."

Texarkana Area Loses Population

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Little Rock - North Little Rock metropolitan area and the Memphis West Memphis area increased in population between 1950 and 1960, but two other metropolitan areas in Arkansas lost during the decade.

Figures released by the Census Bureau Tuesday showed the Texarkana area, lying in Arkansas and Texas, dropped from 94,580 in 1950 to 91,657 in 1960. The Fort Smith area declined from 74,202 to 66,565.

The Little Rock - North Little Rock area gained from 196,685 to 242,980 and the Memphis - West Memphis area gained from 482,393 to 627,019.

ALC Against Any More Tax Favors

LITTLE ROCK (AP) —An Arkansas Legislative Council committee has recommended that the Legislature stop granting tax favors to industry and begin thinking about "the bread and meat sales tax payer."

The Revenue and Taxation Committee made the suggestion Tuesday to the Legislative Council, which meets today in its last session before the Arkansas Legislature begins work next Monday.

The council makes recommendations to the Legislature.

The committee made its recommendation after hearing representatives of business and industry ask for more sales tax and use tax exemptions.

The sales tax is paid on items bought in Arkansas. The use tax is on out-of-state firms.

Perry Rep. Paul Van Dalsen said he was in favor of tightening exemptions on both the use and sales taxes to equipment and material directly used in manufacturing and processing.

"That way we can enhance the industrial climate of the state," he said, "and yet not create something that will deprive the state of $1 million or so and eventually cause us to pass a new corporation tax or increase the sales tax."

Van Dalsen said it was time to stop and think about what he called the bread and meat sales tax payer—wholesalers and small contractors in the state who are losing business to out of state firms who take advantage of the use tax law exemptions.

State Sen. Charles F. Smith of West Memphis said more tax exemptions would not help lure industry to the state. He said the lawmakers must consider the wholesalers and small contractors.

"We must not lose sight of the fact that they are placed at an unfair competitive disadvantage by the state sales tax," he said.

"They have to pay it while the out of state competitor underbids them by taking advantage of the use tax exemptions."

Van Dalsen and Smith said they believed the use tax exemptions would be tightened up in the upcoming legislative session.

$150,000 Fire at Osceola

OSCEOLA, Ark. (AP) — Fire destroyed a one-story brick building housing a repair garage and an automobile parts store in the Osceola business district Tuesday.

Damage was estimated at $150,000. No one was injured.

Firemen said an oil stove exploded in Chessie's Garage in mid-afternoon, starting the fire. Cause of the explosion was not determined. The flames spread to Aston Auto Parts.

Firemen battled the fire about two hours before bringing it under control. They kept the fire from spreading to the adjoining building of the Louis George Motor Co.

Two other fires—one at an ice house and the second at a private home — broke out while firemen were busy at the downtown fire.

Osceola firemen had to call for assistance from firemen at Blytheville Air Force Base and Wilson. The ice house and the dwelling fires were extinguished without extensive damage.

The major fire was the second in the Osceola business district recently. Late in November fire destroyed the Dyess Implement Co. building.

DOROTHY DIX

His Marriage in Doldrums; Wife Takes to Taverns

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:

My wife and I have been married seven years and never gone anywhere alone—always together. But for the past year my wife has been going with girl friends to taverns. She told me about a couple of guys she went out with. She also tells me she has lost all love for me. She blames it on the way I used to get on her nerves when she was pregnant.

I have never been untrue and have tried to make amends for the way I treated her in the past but it's no good. Should I leave or should I stay and hope for the best?

I am afraid she'll have too many drinks at these taverns and some man may take advantage of her. She says that's impossible.

—E.M.

Dear E.M.: You speak of your wife having been pregnant. Did her baby live or die? And for what past misdeeds are you trying to make amends?

I could advise you more fully had you told me the complete story. However, on the basis of what you do reveal, it is evident that your marriage has hit the doldrums. This would explain why your wife looks to the taverns for the excitement she misses at home. That is dangerous. She has only to read the news columns to see what can happen to ladies of the taverns.

She needs you now more than ever. But to stay passively and "hope for the best," will do no good. You've got to make a strenuous effort to save her from herself. Take her out. Bring her flowers. Buy her presents. Be ever thoughtful. Make it your business to tell her off. She is making most of us very miserable. What should we do? —Two Unhappy Girls

Here's How Break Affects Relations

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Here's how the U.S. diplomatic break with Cuba will affect other relations between the two countries:

Communications: "We have no notice to halt telephone calls, in either direction, and we'll continue on the present basis," said Mead B. Ferris, divisional traffic manager for Southern Bell Telephone Co.

Transportation: Pan American World Airways said it would add one flight to its regular two daily flights to Cuba "because reservations show there will be a need for it." National Airlines, which makes three weekend flights only, said it was undecided whether it would continue service.

Finance: "The break will mean little to the banks," said Comer Kimball, president of the First National Bank of Miami.

Government Affairs: All 12 Cuban embassies and consulates in this country will close.

Mail: Letters and packages travel between the United States and Cuba under the Pan American Union agreement and it is the practice for countries to continue on exchange even if diplomatic relations are broken.

Refugees: "It is impossible to tell at this early hour what our Immigration Service attitude will be toward refugees fleeing Cuba," said Edward W. Ahrens, regional director.

Trade: The flow of truck farm produce from Cuba to the United States will be a first to suffer. United States ships have been carrying the crops, according to Joseph Fortier, supervising U.S. customs agent, and they "will not take the chance because they have no protection in Cuban ports."

Hope Captures Two of Three From Guernsey

By Vince Foster

Hope Star Sports Editor

The Hope Junior girls lost the first game of Hope's triple header with Guernsey last night 20-16, but the Senior Ladies stomped the Guernsey Ladies 40-27 in a wild roughhouse game. In the final game of the night the Hope "B" Boys took their first game of the year by soundly beating the Guernsey Senior boys 50-39.

As the score shows the Junior girls just couldn't hit last night and trailed at the half 16-13. Both teams were cold the third quarter but in the final period the Guernsey girls took 9 points to our 1. Jennifer Smith was high for Hope with 9, while Roscnbaum took all but 7 of Guernsey's points with 22.

The first half of the Senior girls game was pretty even with Hope out front 19-16, but in the final period the fouls on Guernsey had accumulated until five of their 9 players fouled out leaving only four girls to play instead of six. Hope Coach Mrs. Glenn Ballard took two of her players out to even things out.

This was the first win for the Lady Cats, and they have finally been rewarded for their hard work this year. Having lost a lot of their games by a small margin the girls especially wanted to win a game for their coach, Mrs. Ballard, who deserves one. Nita Messer was high for the Hope girls with 21, while Brenda Mitchell took 9, Judy Robinson 8, Melba Ca. Joan 2. Other squad members are Lera Calicut, Cozel Odum, "Violent" Violet Tonnemaker, Barbara Wester, Tonna Taylor, Jeannie Lowe, Peggy Duke and Anne Ward.

The "B" boys led 23-18 at the half and 33-21 at the end of the third quarter. Then Coach John Pierce, also deserving a win sent in the second string who scored 10 points, while Guernsey took 18. Parmer was high for Guernsey with 17, and Murphy took 14 for Hope. Porterfield had 12, Walker 9, Hatfield 6, Green 3, Baber and Burns 2 each and Compton and Hooten 1 each.

Friday the Senior girls' and B boys take on Spring Hill there, while the Sr. and Jr. boys take on Nashville here.

Saturday night the Sr. and Jr. boys begin district play as they face Malvern here.

Blue Devils Get Solid Nat'l Rating

College Basketball Sports

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Art Heyman, one New Yorker who Frank McGuire couldn't nail, continues to drive Duke's Blue Devils to a solid national rating while establishing himself as one of the top sophomores of the new college basketball season.

A hero both on and off the court, the 19-year-old, 6-foot-3, 205-pound crew cut from Rockville Centre, N.Y., fired 28 points and boosted his season's average to 22.4 Tuesday night as eighth-rated Duke whipped Navy 78-63 for its 10th victory in 11 games.

Seven of those 28 were game-breakers reeled off in succession in the closing minutes from Heyman, who shined bids from McGuire's North Carolina Tar Heels and (by family count) 48 other major schools to enroll at Duke after a whirlwind career at Long Island's Oceanside High School.

The 23 points represented a record for the new Greensboro, N.C., Coliseum and earned Heyman an award as the game's outstanding player.

Coincidentally, one on Heyman's Rockville Center neighbors—soph John Pungor of North Carolina State—played a key role in Tuesday night's college activity that also saw Vanderbilt stretch its two-season win streak to 11, Virginia Tech establish itself as the team to beat in the West Virginia-dominated Southern Conference, and touted Georgia Tech right it-

Senior Bowl to Feature Air Attacks

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—Both Senior Bowl coaches apparently are thinking in terms of strong passing attacks as they prepare for the all star football game here Saturday.

Indications are the starting quarterback roles have been won by Norman Sneed of Wake Forest and Dick Norman of Stanford, two of the leading passers in the nation this season.

The South squad's Sneed ranked second nationally, completing 123 of 259 attempts for 1,676 yards. The Washington Redskins picked him in the first round of the recent pro draft and promptly signed him to a contract.

Norman, directing the first backfield unit in the North drills, connected on 95 of 201 passes during the season to increase his three-year totals to 323 completions in 597 attempts for 3,737 yards and 18 touchdowns. Alternating with Sneed were Howard Dyer of VMI and Phil Nugent of Tulane. Norman will share the North quarterbacking with Bob Ilwaco, a star in Washington's Rose Bowl victory over Minnesota Monday.

self just in time for the start of the Southeastern Conference season.

Pungor, who broke into North Carolina State's starting lineup last week, scored 25 points—19 in the first half—as the Wolfpack routed Virginia 94-71 in an Atlantic Coast Conference test. Vanderbilt, one of only six surviving unbeaten major teams, made it 9-0 this season with an 80-57 romp over Sewanee, and 6-foot-6 Chris Smith fired 19 points and grabbed 26 rebounds as VPI made it 3-0 in Southern Conference doings, 73-63 over Citadel. The Citadel earlier whipped West Virginia, which has monopolized the conference championships for years. In another Southern conference game, Jerry Smith's 24 points led Furman 8-2 over William and Mary 78-56.

Georgia Tech, runner-up to Auburn for the SEC title last year with most of its top team intact, squared its record at 5-5 with an 85-65 whipping of South Carolina behind a 27-point bust by Roger Kaiser.

In opening firing in the Southwest Conference race, Texas A&M got 29 points and 13 rebounds from Carroll Broussard in an 82-69 triumph over TCU, and Del Ray Mounts triggered Texas Tech from a 13-point deficit to a 70-68 upset of SMU, first Tech victory over the Mustangs in 13 years. Mounts had 21 points, 12 in the second half rally.

U. S. Ready for Solution in Laos Deal

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States held the door open today to a satisfactory political solution to the civil war in Laos, but maintained a posture of military readiness if called upon to defend the tiny Southeast Asian kingdom.

Authorities here said there is little doubt extensive Soviet and Communist North Vietnamese participation in military operations against the royal Laos government.

commitment are timed to catch the United States at a period of maximum disadvantage.

The outgoing administration of President Eisenhower turns over responsibility to President-elect John F. Kennedy in a scant 16 days. Officials believe the Communists are seeking to exploit any advantage they can find in the meantime.

The State Department Tuesday put on the record the Soviet and North Vietnamese airlift of arms to Communist forces in Laos. In a statement it cited 184 observed flights by Soviet transport planes carrying war material to rebel forces. The bulk of the arms deliveries went to Vang Vieng, a rebel concentration point about 60 miles north of Vientiane.

Sunday Blue Law

HORTEN, Norway (AP) — The U.S. carrier Card arrived at this Norwegian naval base today with 18 Super Sabre jet replacement planes for the Norwegian Air Force.

In addition substantial numbers of North Vietnamese military personnel were said to have been parachuted into the area.

$28,000 DOLLAR—This 1804 silver dollar, billed as the "king of American silver coins," brought $28,000 at auction in New York. This is the highest amount ever bid for a U.S. coin. Buyer was Samuel Wolfson of Jacksonville, Fla., brother of financier Louis Wolfson.

Would Watch U. S. Agencies More Closely

WASHINGTON (AP) — Winding up three years of inquiries, House investigators today urged Congress to impose stiff new ethical standards on the government's regulatory agencies.

In a final broadside at the much criticized agencies, the House Legislative Oversight Subcommittee, whose chairman is Rep. Oren Harris, D-Ark., advocated legislation to prohibit any back door undermining of agency officials.

The subcommittee, now going out of business, is the one which exposed rigged TV quiz shows and political scandals. In its final report, it recommended: —That Congress act early in its new session on legislation to impose federal regulation on television and radio networks. Only individual stations are now regulated.

—That the House create a permanent new subcommittee to keep an eye on operations of the regulatory agencies.

—That steps be taken to modernize the agencies which regulate industries ranging from broadcasting and stock exchanges to air and ground transportation and electric and gas utilities.

"It is clear that legislative formulation of policies on a national scale are needed in important regulatory areas. We cannot afford to be using horse-and-buggy approaches to space age problems," the report said.

For the most part the subcommittee spoke in general terms and stopped short of comprehensive recommendations of what it felt should be done.

Nor did the report go nearly so far in its criticisms of the agencies as did James M. Landis, former Harvard Law School dean, in a special report prepared for President-elect John F. Kennedy. Landis, named by Kennedy as a special White House assistant to draft proposals for strengthening the agencies, recommended drastic overhauls of some agency procedures. His report was released last week.

The subcommittee did go along with Landis in urging steps to outlaw off-the-record contacts between agency officials and the industries they regulate.

The subcommittee urged action on a bill identical to one introduced in the closing days of Congress last year and sponsored by Harris.

The Harris bill would bar off-the-record contacts, and would outlaw expensive gifts and unto protect vital organs from the excessive pressure during its deep ocean dives.

usual hospitality such as free trips and lavish entertainment to agency officials.

For the most part, the subcommittee's final report closely paralleled a study made public two weeks ago by the subcommittee staff. However, the final report omitted much staff study criticism alleging wholesale inefficiency and laxity in Civil Aeronautics Board and the Interstate Commerce Commission. The staff's conclusions have been roundly criticized by subcommittee Republicans as not being backed up by evidence.

Meet Thursday on Reynolds Plant

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Three members of the state's congressional delegation may attend a meeting Thursday on the closing of a Reynolds Metals Co. plant near Arkadelphia, Gov. Orval Faubus said today.

Faubus received a wire from Sen. J. W. Fulbright saying he would attend unless a Senate rules fight prevented him from leaving Washington.

Faubus said Reps. E. C. Gath-ings of West Memphis and J. W. Trimble of Berryville also had sent word they would be present unless congressional business prevented.

Richard Reynolds, the firm president, told Faubus last week he would either attend or have representative present.

The plant is scheduled to be shut down, except for a small casting operation, by Friday.

Also to attend Thursday's meeting are representatives of the Southwestern Power Administration, Arkansas Power & Light Co. and Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co.

A One-Man Persimmon Sawmill on Highway 29 North

— Hope Star photos
THE STAR'S EDITOR LOOKED IN YESTERDAY ON this one-man sawmill which set up recently on Highway 29 North, on the first curve beyond Radio Station KXAR.
FOR ONCE, OLD DAME RUMOR WAS CORRECT — THIS is a mill sawing up persimmon timber into flitches which are sold to a factory that makes heads for golf clubs. It's a homely but curious little mill, but somehow you come away with the idea it has an excellent market connection. And so it has.

THE MILL IS OWNED BY J. D. SAYLORS OF CARLYLE, Ill., and Hope. The persimmon wood is bought locally, and the flitches are shipped to C. F. Work & Sons, Memphis, who manufacture golf clubheads. The mill turns out about 300 flitches a day.

THE ONLY MAN ON THE PREMISES WAS BETHEL Saylor, cousin of the owner, shown above putting a tough piece of persimmon through the saw.

THIS IS THE SAWMILL'S INTERIOR, WITH MANY SLABS of persimmon piled in the background.

TIME FOR VIOLENCE

By Noel M. Loomis

By NOEL M. LOOMIS
CHAPTER XXI

They cut across the east end of the J. B. pasture. "It's maybe 75 miles to Mobactie," said Arrington. "It would be easier if you would give me your parole."

"All right," said Bart. "But when we get to Mobactie you'll have to look out for yourself."

Arrington nodded. "I'm used to that."

The jugged up at a small ranch yard filled with yapping in the early afternoon. A long gawky man with straggling mustaches and a battered, rainbeaten old farmer's hat came up from the corral. "Light," he said, "and make yourselves to home. I'll have the girl put some coffee on."

He disappeared inside the poor house.

"Ike Logan," said Arrington. "Hate to drink his coffee. He might not have any more. We died last winter with TB. Left him about a dozen kids. The oldest girl runs the place for him. Does the best she can."

They went inside to get out of the hot sun. The house was sparsely furnished, but neat enough except for kids every where like chickens at feeding time. Ike's daughter was about 14, brown-haired, wild-looking with her hair over her eyes, although she seemed to have washed it recently. She peered at them as if they were completely strange beings, and did not say a word as she poured coffee out of a battered old granite ware pot that was too heavy for her frail arms.

Ike Logan waved Arrington and Bart to the only two chairs, while he sat on the floor.

Arrington set down his coffee. "You," Bart said, "even if you Belle Point, stomped me."

Murphy grinned and saw Arrington. "Cap'n Arrington him self," he said. "Big haul."

"Look, Murphy," said Arrington. "You got into the wrong race. Say your piece and get out."

Murphy raised his eyebrows. "There's nothing you can do to me, Captain. I ain't broken any law. Leastways, you ain't caught me at it."

"I got to be a captain in the Rangers by slapping bad eggs like you."

"Now, Captain, don't get excited."

Logan nodded at Hepzibah, who set a full tin cup on the table. Murphy set down his eyes on the thin girl, who turned her face the other way.

Murphy looked sure of himself. "I just come to deliver a warning to Logan."

Logan choked. "A warning?" he asked in a whiny voice.

"I want you to know my men from Tascosa ain't standing by and letting an imitation cow and a two-bit judge railroad our men to the penitentiary on the say-so of the Stock Raisers' Association."

"You're in contempt of court," said Arrington.

"Not yet I ain't—because there ain't no court."

"There was a court the moment the law went into effect," said Arrington.

Murphy looked at him for a moment, but he did not goad Arrington further. "All right, hang on," Bart turned to Logan. "Just remember what I said, farns. Mind which side of the fence you pick."

Murphy cast one keering glance at Hepzibah, and went out. They heard him swear, and then there was a solid thump, and a dog ran, yapping hoarsely.

Art Treasure on Way Back to Poland

DERBY LINE, Vt. (AP) — A multimillion-dollar art treasure crossed the Canadian border into the United States today on its way back to Poland. It had been moved about for more than 20 years to keep it out of the hands of first the Nazis and then the Communists.

Two huge moving vans, accompanied by several cars, reached U.S. customs at Derby Line shortly before 6 a.m. A Royal Canadian Mounted Police escort banded over responsibility for the shipment to Vermont State Troopers.

For more than a dozen years Poland's Communist government has been trying to obtain custody of the collection, valued at $50 million or more. It includes tapestries, gold-encrusted coronation robes of Polish kings, bejeweled swords and other items including a gold saddle.

Officials in charge of the convoy declined information about its destination or its route across New England. They indicated they would have been happier if there were less public knowledge of the shipment.

One of the van drivers expressed surprise when a newspaperman told him of the value of the shipment he was hauling. He said he had not been told what his cargo was.

Antoine Roy, Quebec Province archivist, finally signed an agreement last Saturday for the return of the treasures to the Wawel Polish State Museum at Cracow.

The agreement was announced Monday night by the executive committee of Polish National Unity, an organization of Poles abroad.

The treasure, in 21 blue trunks, was taken from the Provincial

Kennedy to New York for Talks

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President-elect John F. Kennedy flies to New York today to confer with his defense chief, Robert S. McNamara, against the critical background of broken Cuban-U.S. relations.

Plans for the Kennedy meeting with the secretary of defense-designate were announced in advance of the Eisenhower administration's severing of diplomatic relations with the Fidel Castro regime. But that development Tuesday night seems almost certain to get prime attention.

The session also appears likely to deal in part with the tense situation in Communist-threatened Laos.

Kennedy, who during the campaign was critical of Republican handling of the Cuban problem, had no comment on President Eisenhower's order ending relations. The president-elect's press secretary, Pierre Salinger, said Kennedy was informed of the decision in advance.

Kennedy got the word from the man who will be his secretary of state, Dean Rusk. Rusk has been maintaining close liaison with the State Department on both the Cuban and the Laotian situations.

An aspect of the Cuban crisis likely to concern Kennedy and McNamara is the future of the Museum on the Plains of Abraham.

M. Dobrosielski, a deputy of the Polish ambassador to the United States, said the treasure would be taken to Boston and loaded on a Polish ship there.

The treasures were removed the start of World War II. Two representatives of the Polish government in exile brought them to Canada in 1940. They were moved from one hiding place to another.

In 1948 Premier Maurice Duplessis of Quebec ordered them transferred at night to the provincial museum when he heard that some of the treasures might be sent back to Poland.

big and strategically important American naval base at Guantanamo in Cuba. In Washington Tuesday night, White House press secretary James C. Hagerty declined to answer questions about the base.

In the campaign last year, Kennedy called at one point for a U.S. pledge of aid to anti-Castro forces, within and outside of Cuba. Republicans assailed this as dangerous and irresponsible. Kennedy said he had not meant intervention, only moral support.

The president-elect, ending a

Palm Beach stay which began Dec. 16, arranged a mid-afternoon departure aboard a regularly scheduled commercial airline jet.

In advance of the trip north, Kennedy filled two more Defense Department positions.

Two drafts embargoed for 6:30 a.m., EST.

He announced today the appointment of Cyrus Roberts Vance as the department's general counsel. Vance, 43, a Democrat, is a New York lawyer who served in 1957-60 as special counsel to a Senate Preparedness Investigating subcommittee which looked into the satellite and missile programs and held hearings on the defense and space programs generally.

Vance also was consulting counsel to the special senate committee which helped draft the National Space Act in 1958.

End embargoed matter.

Kennedy Tuesday night chose economist Charles J. Hitch of Pacific Palisades, Calif., to be the Pentagon's chief financial officer. Hitch, a Democrat who will be 50 next Tuesday, will serve as an assistant secretary of defense and will supervise preparation of the huge military spending budget—about $60 billion dollars a year, more than half the federal government's total annual expenditure.

Hitch now is chairman of the Research Council of the Rand Corporation at Santa Monica, Calif., and organization which specializes in national security research.

Harvard University scientists have developed a clock reported to have an accuracy of one part in a quadrillion. This means, theoretically, that it could measure time an error of only one second in 33 million years.
